
Research and the Future of Architectural Education

Sponsored by the Architectural Research Centers Consortium

Moderator: CAROLYN DRY
University of Illinois, Urbana-Champaign

Considering the conference themes of "legacy" and "aspirations," the session will address the focus of research as an integral element within architectural education from an historical perspective, a societal perspective, and a diversity perspective.